Laura's passion extends from electronic music to jazz and soul, where as a talented singer/songwriter she has enthralled thousands at arenas such as the O2, NEC, Manchester Evening News Arena and Amsterdam Heineken Music Hall, supporting artists including Take That, Sophie Ellis-Bextor, The Stylistics and Candy Dulfer.

Championed by Jazz FM and described as 'completely original', her debut jazz album Off The Ground was signed immediately by Robin Millar CBE (Sade, Everything But The Girl, Randy Crawford).

Described by the late iconic Humphrey Lyttleton (BBC Radio 2) as a 'saxophonist with distinction', Lovely Laura is a D'Addario performing artist who plays exclusively on Rico Jazz Select Reeds. She is also endorsed by Yanagisawa saxophones and Claude Lakey mouthpieces
